

This Cookies Policy explains how BorderPolice.eu uses cookies and similar technologies to improve your browsing experience. By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies as outlined in this policy.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help websites remember information about your visit, like your preferences and settings, to improve your user experience and provide a more personalized browsing experience.

2. Types of Cookies We Use

- Essential Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the basic functioning of our website. They enable core site features, such as page navigation and access to secure areas. Without these cookies, the website may not function correctly.
- Performance and Analytics Cookies: These cookies collect information about how visitors use our site, including which pages are most visited and any errors that occur. We use this data to monitor site performance and improve functionality.
- Functionality Cookies: Functionality cookies remember your preferences, such as language or region settings, to provide a more tailored browsing experience.
- Third-Party Cookies: We may use third-party cookies, such as those from analytics providers, to help us understand how visitors interact with our site and to analyze overall website performance.

3. Managing and Disabling Cookies

- You can manage cookies through your browser settings, including blocking or deleting cookies. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect your experience on BorderPolice.eu and limit access to some features.
- For more information on how to adjust your browser settings for cookies, consult your browser's help documentation.

4. Third-Party Analytics

We use third-party analytics tools, such as Google Analytics, to help us understand how our site is used. These third parties may set cookies on our behalf to provide insights and improve our website's performance. All third-party cookies are managed by their respective providers, and we encourage you to review their privacy policies for more information.

5. Updates to This Cookies Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. Updates will be posted on this page, and your continued use of BorderPolice.eu indicates acceptance of these changes.

6. Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about our Cookies Policy, please contact us through the details provided on our website.
